About me

I am a graphic designer with extensive knowledge in branding, web design and especially UX & UI design. With more than 3 years of experience as a freelance designer collaborating on graphic projects for clients from various countries.

Currently self-taught Frontend developer.

Education

Professional graphic communicator 2012 - 2017

University Minuto de Dios - Colombia.

Full-Stack Javascript Developer 2021 - 2022

Educamas & Simplon Bootcamp

- I offered UI & UX design masterclasses to my entire cohort.
- My degree project was selected as the best of the Bootcamp.
- I was Frontend leader in that same project leading a group of 5 people and I worked collaboratively with the Backend group implementing the SCRUM methodology.
- I was a reference to solve design and code problems, both in my work group and in the others.

Experience

Freelance Graphic Designer 2017 - 2020

I worked as a freelancer on projects related to branding, corporate image and web design, mainly making wireframes, prototypes and mockups.
